Whitehall, May 14.

The Letters from the Eaſt Indies, of which the following are Copies and Extracts, were received Yeſterday by the Princeſs Royal, one of the Company's Ships.

Camp near Cannanore, January 9, 1791.

To Stephen Luſhington, Eſq; Chairman of the Honorable the Court of Directors for tranſacting all Affairs of the United Engliſh Eaſt-India Company.

SIR,

THE Princeſs Royal, which arrived at Tellicherry the 7th Inſtant in her Way to England, having left Bombay previous to the Arrival of the Drake Snow, which carried the Account of the Capture of Cannanore, I now do myſelf the Pleaſure to ſend you, for the Information of the Honorable the Select Committee, a Detail of every material Circumſtance which has taken Place from my firſt Determination of coming to Tellicherry to the preſent Time, which I flatter myſelf will meet the Approbation of the Honorable Company.

The eſſential Aſſiſtance given the Travancore Raja, by a Detachment under Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley, has long ſince been known in England. It was my Intention, as ſoon as the Seaſon would admit, to aſſemble the Force of this Preſidency, to emancipate the Malabar Princes with whom Alliances had been concluded, and afterwards to co-operate with General Medows. His ſucceſsful Advance through the Coimbatore, and the ſanguine Expectations univerſally held of a ſpeedy Termination of the War, induced his Lordſhip to conſider any Aſſiſtance as unneceſſary, to place the Troops with Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley, and on the Malabar Coaſt, under General Medows's Orders; and to confine my Attention to granting the Marattas whatever Force they might require. A Detachment of Artillery and Two Battalions of Native Troops were ſent them before the Rains. This Corps has ſince been augmented with a Battalion of European Infantry, and another of Sepoys, under Colonel Frederick's Command. By the lateſt Accounts from Bombay the Reinforcement was expected to join the Maratta Army employed at the Siege of Darwar.

Agreeably to the Syſtem adopted by his Lordſhip and General Medows, Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley, as ſoon as the Seaſon admitted, marched to Palicautcherry, and opened the Communication from this Coaſt with the Madras Army, at that Time ſtationed in the Coimbatore. Supplies of Military Stores were ſent them from Bombay, but the Inconvenience of tranſporting them by Land pointed out the Neceſſity of opening the Paniani River. In the mean Time the Enemy's Advance into Coimbatore, and the Retreat of Lieutenant-Colonel Floyd from Sallimungulum prevented General Medows from aſcending the Ghauts, and obliged him to detain Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley, with his Detachment, at Palicaudcherry, to form Magazines of Grain.

From this Change in the Movements originally intended, his Lordſhip was convinced that a Diverſion on the Malabar Coaſt might be attended with beneficial Conſequences. As ſoon as I was acquainted with his Wiſhes, that I would in Perſon proceed hither, I reſolved with the little Force that could be ſpared from Bombay to embark for Tellicherry, and on the Spot determine if an Attempt could be made with Propriety to clear the Country of a Force ſtationed by Tippoo, to awe the Garriſon of Tellicherry, and curb the Nairs, who were univerſally diſpoſed to join us.

On my Arrival the 5th of December, I was informed that the Force to the Southward of Tellicherry had aſſembled, and had marched towards Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley, at that Time ordered to Paniani, to keep the Communication open. Much as I wiſhed to aſſiſt him in a Meaſure ſo important in its Conſequences, I found it impracticable to take a Corps ſufficient for the Purpoſe, unleſs Cannanore was firſt reduced. The Government of that Diſtrict had, during the Rains, made a Treaty with the Chief of Tellicherry; had evaded a Compliance with the Articles; had invited a Force ſtationed by Tippoo in the Cherical Country, and which had retired at the Opening of the Campaign, to return to their Defence; and had at length openly avowed their hoſtile Intentions.

On the 10th the Force that could be ſpared for the Purpoſe encamped on the Heights of Egar.

It

It conſiſted of His Majeſty's 77th Regiment, Seven Companies of the 1ſt Bombay Regiment; the 2d the 3d, the 10th and 12th Battalions of Native Infantry; the Flank Companies of the 6th and Two Companies of Artillery, amounting to upwards of 3000 diſciplined Men. On the 12th and 13th the neighbouring Rajas joined with about 2000 irregular Nairs.

The 14th the Line moved towards the Enemy, They were ſtrongly poſted on Heights, to the Southward and Eaſtward of Cannanore, defended by a Chain of Stone Redoubts, with Cannon in them. On viewing their Poſition, I determined to gain Poſſeſſion of a very Redoubt, in the Center of their Poſts, which would enable me to attack either of their Wings, with the greateſt Part of my Force. Notwithſtanding much Reſiſtance during the Day, I took Poſt ſufficiently near to erect a Battery which early in the Morning of the 15th demoliſhed the Defences. and obliged them to evacuate the Place. At the ſame Time the Left Brigade advanced in Line, and attacked the Heights of Carley. The Reſiſtance was trifling, conſidering the Strength of the Ground occupied by a Brigade of the Enemy's Troops. They retreated under the Guns of Carley Redoubt, and through the Town of Cannamore. In the Night of the 15th a Battery was raiſed againſt Carley, which ſurrendered at Day-break next Morning.

By theſe Operations I was in Poſſeſſion of the Heights and Works to the Southward, and by a ſmall Movement to my Right, could completely prevent the Enemy's Retreat. Convinced of the Danger of their Situation they offered to capitulate: The Articles were agreed on in the Evening, and Hoſtages came into my Camp.

On the Morning of the 17th, the Cannanore Troops, amounting to 800 Men, retired within the Town, and Tippoo's Forces paraded in Front of their Encampment, and, agreeably to the Terms that had been granted, ſurrendered their Arms and all Circar Property, and engaged not to ſerve during the War. They conſiſted of 200 Horſe, a Corps of Grenadiers, Two Brigades of Regular Infantry, and Rocket Boys, Irregulars, &c. amounting to upwards of 5000 Men. The Fort of Cannamore was ſummoned immediately afterwards, and ſurrendered without Conditions.

The Fort of Biliapatam, the Capital of the Cheukal Raja, ſituated on the South Bank of the River, and Nurrcarow on the North, alſo ſurrendered in the Evening, and the Garriſon received the ſame Terms with the Reſt of Tippoo's Troops. They have ſince been all ſent, under an Eſcort, to the Canara Country.

By theſe Succeſſes we have taken Thirty-four Stand of Colours, 68 Pieces of Cannon, a Quantity of Ammunition, Military Stores and Grain, and near 5000 Stand of Arms. I have the Honor to enclose a Return of them, and of the killed and wounded of the Detachment, which I am happy to obſerve is much more trifling than could have been expected. I have alſo great Pleaſure in aſſuring you, I have every Reaſon to be perfectly ſatisfied with the Gallantry and Diſcipline of the Troops, whoſe Behaviour equalled my moſt ſanguine Expectations.

I was now at Liberty to have aſſiſted Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley; but his little Detachment had completely defeated and diſperſed the Corps oppoſed to them, and were in Poſſeſſion of Turuckabad, the Capital of this Coaſt. It conſiſted of His Majeſty's 75th Regiment, the Grenadier Native Battalion, and Seven Companies of the 7th Battalion, amounting to about 1600 Men, with 10 Pieces of Cannon, 500 Travancore Horſe, a Battalion of Travancore Sepoys, and a Body of irregular Nairs. The Enemy's Force was about 10,000 Men, poſted at Ventzetty Cottah, whither Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley marched on the 6th of December. They retreated on his Approach the 7th, and the Fort ſurrendered on the 8th in the Morning. They were found poſted in a Wood in the Front of the Village of Tervanamgurry. The Detachment forced them from thence, and attacked the Village, as well as the Grounds on both Sides of it, which were woody, and interſected with Hedges and Mud Banks. The Enemy retreated, after diſputing the Ground; and formed in Front, and on the Flanks of the Fort of Trincalore, the Eſplanade of which extends to the Village; but our Troops advanced with Vivacity and Spirit, purſued them into the Covert-way, where many of them were killed, obliged the Fort to ſurrender, and totally diſperſed them. Upwards of 800 were taken in the Fort, and Numbers were killed in the different Attacks.

Mootaub Khan, who commanded them, retreated to Turuckabad, and the next Day he left it, with about 2000 Men, and a conſiderable Sum in Specie, and fled to the Ghauts. Lieutenant-Colonel Hartley advanced to that Place on the 10th, when 1500 Men, the Remains of their Army, laid down their Arms. A conſiderable Quantity of Military and other Stores were captured and in particular the Guns taken from the Travancore Lines.

The Ports of Barragurry and Cootahpore, in the Cartanad Country, ſtill remained in Poſſeſſion of Tippoo's Troops. A Detachment from hence marched againſt them the 27th of December, and returned on the 5th Inſtant with 400 Priſoners, which they had taken without any Loſs. The Poſts ſurrendered, after a little Oppoſition, on nearly the ſame Terms as Cannanore.

The Object that induced me to viſit the Coaſt being completed, and the ancient Nair Princes in Poſſeſſion of their Diſtricts, from Billipatam River to Cape Comorin, nothing remains to be done with the little Force under my Command. Having Reaſon, however, to imagine his Lordſhip wiſhes to to unite the Detachments, and being perſuaded they may be of eſſential Conſequence to his future Operations, I have determined to remain and wait his Orders.

I am pleaſed at an Opportunity of aſſuring you, that Captain Byron, of His Majeſty's Ship Phœnix, has been of eſſential Service, not only by a well directed Fire from his Ship, but in his Exertions in forwarding the Public Stores, and in landing with Two Eighteen Pounders, his Marines and a Part of his Crew, to aſſiſt us in the Reduction of Carley and Barragurry.

By a Letter from Lieutenant Colonel Hartley, received ſince writing the above, dated Turuckabad, the 6th Inſtant. He adviſes me, that he had received Orders from General Medows to deliver over Charge of Palicaudcherry to Major Cuppage, who was coming from Coimbatore with two Regiments for that Purpoſe, and that he and his Detachment were then to conſider themſelves as under my Orders.

Encloſed you will pleaſe to receive a general Return of the Troops encamped at this Place; and I have the Honor to remain,

SIR,

Your very obedient humble Servant,

Signed, Robert Abercromby.

Extract of a Letter from the Government of Fort St. George to the Government of Bombay, entered on their Conſultations December 14, 1790.

WE have the Honour to announce to you that the Centre Army under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Maxwell formed a Junction with the Grand Army on the 17th Inſtant, near Covenpatnam, and that Tippoo retired up the Ghauts.

Fort St. George, Nov. 24, 1790.

Extract of a Letter from Major-General Medows to the Government of Fort St. George, entered in the above-mentioned Conſultations.

HAVING marched Seven Days ſucceſſively after having croſſed the Cavery, I take the firſt Opportunity of a Halt to acquaint you with our Situation. We are now within Fifteen Miles of Colonel Maxwell, to whom this Morning I have ſent Five Squadrons of Dragoons, and Orders to join us here, which I conclude he will do To-day or To-morrow. The Enemy looked at him a few Days ago, but not liking, I believe, his judicious Poſition, nor our being ſo near, declined an Engagement. We ſaw the Enemy ourſelves the Day before Yeſterday, about Twenty Miles off, on his Return from Colonel Maxwell, pitching his Tents, juſt as we were come to our Ground, after a long fatiguing March through the Paſs of Tippoor; but no ſooner had we fired Three Guns as a Signal to Colonel Maxwell than he immediately ſtruck his Tents again, and proceeded up the Ghauts, by the Oodeallurgum Paſs.
